HAIL AND FARWEULL TO THE 1959 GRADUATE:

For five long years you, the 1959 Carver Graduate, have had constantly our chief thought and have been our responsibility. Our responsibility has been not unlike conditions experienced by the Captain and Crew of a great ocean-liner, whose duty is the safe landing of a large group of passengers.

The Principal and Faculty have made countless plans and spent many years both during and after school laboring in order that the fewest number of you, these precious passengers, would be left behind at the end of the five-year voyage.

The good ship Carver has carried you over safely as far as planned. You alone can decide whether this is the end or the COMMENCEMENT. You can never truly know the true worth of what you have already accomplished until you meet someone who would gladly make any sacrifice if only he could truly possess a high school education.

Class History

September first, nineteen hundred fifty-four, was a day of joy and excitement for two hundred eager young students who entered the doors of Carver Regional High School with open minds and hearts for learning, and eager for friendship. We, the two hundred students, were from the four counties: Culpeper, Madison, Orange, and Rappahannock.

Commencing high school began a new era in our young lives, but because of our eagerness for knowledge, we soon became adjusted to our new environment and surroundings. We found great joy in taking the exploratory courses that we had in order to help us decide what courses we should take in our later years that would best enable us to realize our goals for the future. We shall never forget the many new rules and customs by which we had to abide.

During our eighth grade year we were under the guidance of Miss Alease P. Scott, Mr. Frank N. Johnson, Mrs. Eleanor Thompson, and Mrs. Ethel Anderson. They showed much interest and patience in helping us with our many problems.

Before we realized it, we were ready for our Freshman year of high school. After our exploratory year we were really ready for the never-ending study of our more complex studies that were required of us. Our sponsors were Miss Alease P. Scott, Mr. Frank N. Johnson, Mrs. Eleanor Thompson, Mr. James Mailey and Miss Louise Taylor. This year our class was represented in the various activities, such as Band, New Homemakers of America, New Framers of America, Camera Club, Choir, Football and Baseball.

Nothing unusual happened in our Sophomore year. Our class still participated in the various activities. Although we found it difficult and necessary to keep up with our scholastic studies, it was, indeed, an enjoyable year for us. Our sponsors were Miss Louise Taylor, Mr. James Mailey, Miss Alease Scott, and Mrs. Eleanor Thompson.

A year of truly hard work and pleasure was our Junior year. This will be remembered because of the thrill and excitement of sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom. We had to work very hard in achieving this goal, but it wouldn't have been achieved without the sincere help and guidance of our sponsors, Miss Alease Scott, Miss Louise Taylor, and Mrs. Eleanor Thompson. Our boys were finally successful in winning the Intramural Volleyball and Basketball Tournaments.

At last we can proudly say that we have reached the most important year of our high school education, our Senior year. We are, indeed, fortunate to have again Miss Alease Scott, and a new sponsor, Mr. Harry I. D. Williams, as our sponsors. However, by the time we reached our Senior year, our enrollment had dropped from two hundred to eighty-eight. As we are nearing the completion of our high school education, this, the Senior year will be remembered most and will linger in our minds longest because of the hard struggle to the top. We are now ready to take another step forward into life, with heads high and minds ready to face the many hard trials that are yet to come. Some of us will strive to further our education, and some of us will make good use of what we have.

We sincerely believe that we have done our best in achieving a part of our goal.

We, the Seniors of fifty-eight and fifty-nine, wish to assure the teachers that their work through the five long years with us will be very rewarding to us. We wish to show our appreciation to our teachers by becoming better citizens of tomorrow. May luck and happiness be with you always!

Class Prophecy

David Jackson and Margaret Durham are now enjoying the hardships and fun on Virginia State's Campus.

Georgianna Stevens and Phyllis Williams are now coaching basketball at Michigan State College. The majority of their students belong to Mary Wilson Dinkins.

Arlene Wallace (now Mrs. Edward Gordon) is home watching her two children while waiting for Skippy to return from a business trip.

Shirley Carter has just made a hit song entitled "Shirley Be Good".

Powhatan Nelson, Robert Jackson, and Joseph Smith are the star clowns on the Harlem Globetrotters.

Richard Greene and Evelyn Ferguson now own the biggest Hot Shoppe in Jeffersonton, Virginia.

Judy Ford is working her way through Virginia State College.

Budd Jameson, James Ferris, and Bernie Jones are now playing pro-football---we don't know where, as yet.

Virginia Ruffner is now teaching English IV at her Alma Mater.

Shirley Turner is now private secretary to Pembroke Washington.

Mettress Murrill, Walter Ware, Isiah Walker, and Warren Johnson are now singing at the Waldorf Astoria in New York.

Alva Johnson and Roberta Gaskins are now make-up artists for M. G. M.

John Hunter, Edward Gordon, and Anthony Wright have signed a three-year contract with Fats Domino's band.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of Virginia

Town of Rapidan

County of Culpeper

May, 1959

We, the Senior Class of 1958 and 1959, being sound in mind and body promulgate our last will and Testament.

Article I

To the Juniors: We leave our seats in assembly and courage to strive hard to become seniors.

Article II

To the Sophomores: We wish to leave our positions in all extracurricular activities.

Article III

To the Freshmen: We will a successful sophomore year and our worn out text books.

Article IV

To the Eighth Graders: We wish to leave our hard-working sponsors.

Article V

To the Faculty: We leave a group of brilliant students such as we.

Article VI

Evelyn Ferguson wills to David Ferguson, Carole Ferguson, and Charles Ferguson, Miss Scott, a very sweet homeroom teacher.

To Louise Banks, Georgiana Stevens wills her ability to get a boyfriend of her own and stop trying to steal other girls' boyfriends.

Carole Brown wills to Drewary Brown the ability to get his class work and become a senior instead of flirting with the girls.

Martha Mallory wills to Willie Mallory the ability to stay out of the detention hall and to become a senior.

George Turner wills to Raymond and Cooper Turner the school's piano.

To Amanda Brown, Fannie Wormley wills her ability to get along with others and to do well in school.

Anthony Wright wills his ability to play a trumpet to Wesley Drumgoole.

Arlene Wallace wills her position as lead majorette to Marilyn Bunes.

Journey Beasley wills to Daniel Brent, a bag of peanuts.

Shirley Carter wills to Peggy Butler the ability to clown in class and not get caught.

John Hunter wills to Robert Robinson his magic drumsticks so that he can play a sloppy cadence without tearing up his drum.

To Mason Porter, Janice Porter wills her privilege to become a senior.

Joseph Williams wills to Herbert Shanks the ability to play first trombone without fumbling or fishing for the notes.

Peggy Strother wills to Ruth Jackson the ability to stop flirting with the boys.

William Cooper wills to Fleming Prentiss his seat on Bus 22.

To Bessie Stevens, Phyllis Williams wills her basketball suit and the ability to get along with Mrs. Finlay.

Luciel Lee wills to Roger Lee and Sarah Lee the ability to become dignified seniors.

Edward Gordon wills to Clifton Taliaferro the first chair in the Tenor Saxophone section of the band.

To Josephine Walker, Annie Young, and Olivia Banks, Mary Wilson wills her ability to act like a lady and stop acting cute.

Leticia King wills to Flossie Nixon all the boys in Louisa and Orange; then maybe she will leave Robert alone.

Virginia Ruffner wills to William Maurice Bentley all the success and happiness that the future may bring.
